SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1900
FOUR ARGUMENT.

The following is from the Times-Review, published in Tuscarora, in Mr. Farrington's home county of Elko and we commend it to the careful perusal of our readers.

"In opening his campaign for Congress at Elko a few days ago, Mr. Farrington laid great stress upon the fact, which nobody denies, that he is a resident of the State. But he went still further and claimed that his opponent, Mr. Newlands, was a 'non-resident millionaire,' a statement we believe he will find it difficult to substantiate. The facts are that Mr. Newlands is now and has been a permanent resident of the State of Nevada for twelve years and is only absent when his official duties call him to Washington. His home is in Reno, and he has no other legal or constructive residence. The cry of 'Nevada for Nevadans' is certainly in no sense applicable to Mr. Newlands, who can consistently run on a home rule platform. Mr. Farrington evidently forgets himself when he descends to the use of such language as the following in connection with his tirade against non-resident office seekers, of which he says Mr. Newlands is one:

"They control our politics, manipulate our conventions, debauch our people and leave a trail of infamy across the State."

Mr. Farrington is a pretty fair lawyer, we believe, and yet we opine he would have considerable trouble in dissecting and proving the above to a majority of the people in this State. Such sweeping and intemperate utterances as the above will certainly gain him no friends for the cause he pretends to advocate, as they are absolutely false and indefensible. We have read somewhere the advice given by an old lawyer to a young attorney just admitted to practice. He said: "When you have a weak case and the law and evidence are both against you, turn loose and abuse the opposition; avoid all reference to the questions at issue and blind the jury by irrelevant and vituperative oratory."

Mr. Farrington evidently intends to take the old lawyer's advice, but we warn him the jury—in this case the voters—are more desirous of learning where Mr. Farrington stands on the national issues than to hear him turn loose a flood of billingsgate on his opponent, who is certainly too much of a gentleman and has been too long before the people as a public servant to need defense.

We had hoped that this campaign would be a clean one and could be argued from the high standpoint of national and State issues, but it seems to be decreed otherwise. However, if we are to meet Mr. Farrington on the charges above quoted, we demand that he produce his proofs of when Mr. Newlands ever "controlled our politics, manipulated our conventions, debauched our people or left a trail of infamy behind him." If all this is true, then Mr. Farrington has a walk-over, or should have, but what the people demand and will have is specific proof; generalities will not do.

Will Keep the Exhibit Open.

A meeting of the board of directors of the State Agricultural Society was held yesterday and it was decided to keep the pavilion open Monday and Tuesday of next week.
Never was a handsomer nor more interesting exhibit made in this pavilion and although it has been visited by crowds of people, there are many who are kept away by other fair week attractions. It is on their account that the magnificent display will be kept intact the two additional evenings.

Not Dangerous.

T. J. Steinmetz brought a number of samples of powder from Santa Cruz and offered to place them on exhibition in the pavilion but it was objected to on the grounds that a horrible catastrophe might ensue.
Mr. Steinmetz says the stuff in question is innocent when not monkeyed with, but the question is still open for debate. The collection is on display in the windows of Donnell & Steinmetz's store.

Items About Nevada's Leading Industry Clipped From Exchanges.

Last week ore shipments from Esmeralda aggregated 177 tons, and those from White Pine 65 tons.
Mining locations in Yellow Pine district, Lincoln county, have recently been bonded to Los Angeles men.
Two carloads of ore from the Nevada company's mine at Galena, Lander county, were shipped to Salt Lake last week.
Bald mountain is booming. Charles Born has struck a rich mine, and A. H. Tarbet of Salt Lake has bonded some copper claims and has eight men working on them.
A six-foot vein of anthracite coal is alleged to have been discovered near Pioche. If the discovery is verified it will prove of more importance to the Lincoln county mining industry than a gold mine.

The operators in charge of the wiring of the various Comstock mining plants for the Electric Power Company finished the wiring of the Sierra Nevada Saturday night, and will be through with the Union to day.

Today's Program At the Fair.

Today is the last day of Nevada's most successful State fair in the past decade.
The entries for the horse races will be made at the race track this morning at 8:30.
One of the principal attractions of the day will be the bicycle races. They will begin at 1 o'clock sharp. In addition to single races, free for all, there will be a hotly contested twelve mile relay. It will be ridden by a dozen crackers of the Reno Wheelmen's club. J. A. Fitzgerald has already collected $165 to be applied to trophies. He expects to increase the amount today.
The Virginia & Truckee local will be held until 3:30 in order to give Carson and Virginia people an opportunity to witness the races. Excursion tickets will be sold.

After the Right Men.

District Attorney VanDuzer of Humboldt is here looking for the trio that held up the Winnemucca bank. He confided to us last night that he has Sam Davis, Nick Hammel and Johnny Conscience under close surveillance.
This trio has a hard record. Each has served time on the "galley," been indicted by brother journalists for stealing news, and the last named will probably have to answer to the charge of murder; the political assassination of C. O. Wallace being alleged against him.

This County Won the Suit.

A suit was decided yesterday where by Washoe county gains a State Senator. The action was brought by Storey county. The case was a test of a reapportionment of lawmakers made by the last legislature, which reduced the Storey delegation two assemblymen and one Senator, and increased that of Washoe county one senator and that of Lincoln, Humboldt and Elko counties each one assemblyman.

Visiting his old Home.

D. McIntosh is up from San Francisco taking a look at the old town and renewing the acquaintanceships of long ago.
Mr. McIntosh is in the mercantile business in the Bay City and doing well. Here's pointer for you but don't breathe it. When Mc gets his stake you may expect him to take unto himself a bride and settle down for life in his boyhood home.

To Our Subscribers.

A number of our subscribers have complained about not receiving the JOURNAL. We will consider it a kindness from any of our subscribers who will advise the office when they fail to receive the paper.

Meetings Postponed.

Owing to the fair it was thought best to postpone the meetings of Francis G. Newlands, which were to have been held at Browns last night and at Glendale tonight, until later in the campaign.

Papa "Pritch."

Special to the JOURNAL.
SHENANDOAH, Penn., September 21.—The sheriff's posse today fired into a crowd of riotous miners killing a man and several little girls and wounding half a dozen. The sheriffs appealed for troops and as a result four regiments were ordered to the scene also a battery of artillery and a troop of cavalry. The miners are determined and the situation points to further trouble.

May Withdraw our Troops.

Special to the JOURNAL.
WASHINGTON, September 21.—America sent formal replies to all notes on the Chinese question today but the text of the reply will not be given out till tomorrow. It is known that the Government refuses to accept Germany's plan. It is expected that American troops will be withdrawn at once.

CHICAGO, September 21.—A poll of the city shows that the Democrats are making enormous gains.

Hats Off to President Bob.

All Robert W. Parry gets out of his position as president of the State Fair committee is the honors of the job and the ouster of the kickers. The former is not negotiable security and the latter are always as thick as "falling leaves in Vallamborosa."

Bob deserves a word and handshake of congratulation, for he has neglected business and slept with his pants on for the past month in order to make the State Fair a record breaker, as it is. The other members of the board, Secretary Bavier, in particular, have pulled long, strong and all together, and while republics and municipalities are ungrateful, Reno, being unincorporated, does not enter that class, and is therefore permitted to say to you and each of you, members of the State Agricultural Society, "Well done, good and faithful servants."

Troubles of a Minister.

To benefit others Rev. J. T. W. Ver-Lock, of Hartwell, Ga., writes: "For a long time I had a running sore on my leg. LEO BUNCIL
BOUND OVER

Judge Linn Holds Him to Answer to the Charge of Arson.

Leo Buncil was bound over yesterday to await the action of the grand jury on the charge of arson. The proceedings were taken up at 9:30 and the prosecution spent the forenoon adducing testimony. Constable McNeilly, Mr. Merklinger and Steve Williams were placed upon the stand. The State then rested its case and the defendant waived a hearing. No witnesses were produced in his behalf. The defendant's counsel made a brief plea for the release of his client and requested that, if the court bound over the prisoner, he fix the bonds at a sum not to exceed $1000. District Attorney Williams summed up the evidence very briefly. Judge Linn held the young man for the grand jury and fixed the bond at $1500.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Gossip About the Migrating Public as They Come and Go.

Ex-Governor Adams is at the Riverside.
W. A. McIntosh is down from Virginia.
G. C. Kuhn is down from the Comstock.
Lloyd Tevis Stevenson is "in our midst."
F. M. Lee returned yesterday from Winnemucca.
H. Marker, a Lovelock valley ranch owner, is at the Arcade.
C. A. Sage of Winnemucca is spending the week in this city.
G. W. Cambron of Surprise Valley is registered at the Palace.
F. O. Henderson of Eureka is tarrying a few days in this burg.
W. C. Grimes and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnson are in from Churchill.
John Sheerin, one of Virginia's gay young men, is out at the track speculating on speed.
Lee Updike, the popular C. P. conductor, is spending the week with relatives in this city.
H. Jud Allen, the Wadsworth livery man, is at the fair watching his daddy's horses smash records.
Misses Lillie Dwyer, Lola Willey and Lillie Brannin of Wadsworth are visiting friends in Reno during the fair.
B. F. Thornton of Wadsworth concluded that the fair wouldn't be a success without him and bought a ticket for Reno.
Eugene Howell has moved his office to Reno for the week. In fact, the whole State house crowd is among our welcome guests.

Sienkiewitz'
Famous Play.

Quo Vadis—where goest thou?—was a question a number of people asked each other with on the streets of Reno last evening. The answer invariably was: "To the opera house."
Quo Vadis has been more widely read in this city than any other work of modern historic romance, but this is the first time the dramatization has been produced here.
There was a demand for seats all day yesterday, although the entire house was sold out during the forenoon.
The Elleford company was in fine form last night. The leading characters and support entered into the spirit of this classic dreams.
The special scenery used added to the impressiveness of the play. The burning of Rome was portrayed with realistic red light and transparency effects.
Elleford's greatest success, "The American Girl," will be the bill at the matinee this afternoon. No seats will be reserved and only the seating capacity of the house will be sold. Tickets may be obtained at Rosenthal & Armarko's, 10 and 20 cents.
Tonight the beautiful melodrama, "Beacon Light," will be presented.

A Whopping Assay.

A. E. Murdock showed us an assay blank yesterday that gave $4,079.86 in gold, as the value of a specimen that "Tale Frank" Dickinson brought in from Last Chance.
Mr. Dickinson says he can find any sort of rock a man wants in the Last Chance lead. A few days ago the face of the drift broke into seams of decomposed ore that shows coarse gold.

Collided With Cattle.

The east-bound train last night ran into a bunch of beef cattle near Lawtons. Four were struck. The train was quickly stopped. As the cattle were badly injured they were killed by the trainmen.

YESTERDAY'S RACES

Speedy Runners, Trotters and Pacers at the Fair This Year.

Yesterday was school children's day at the fair grounds. It was made a holiday and there were hosts of pupils present. The balloon ascension was a feature of the day's pleasure.
Yesterday's races were as good as any this week. There are faster horses here than have struck this track in eight years.
The first event was a free-for-all trot, 3 in 5, for a purse of $250—Arrow, Bob, Mollie Nourse, Peggy and Wilfred L. The first two heats were taken by Bob in 2:18½ and 2:28½. Peggy won the other three, going in 2:21½, 2:20 and 2:23. Bob got second money and Wilfred L. third.
The second race resulted in Incendiator first, Aunt Bird second and Lodestar third. The time was 1:1½. This was a five-furlong event for a purse of $175. It was open only to horses that had not run twice at this meeting.
The last event was seven furlongs for $200. Odd Eyes won with Roulette Wheel a good second, and Fannie E. close behind. Rio Shannon also ran.

LITTLE LOCAL BREVITIES

Items of Street and Town too Brief for Separate Heads.

The case of Wright vs. Crane was argued yesterday in the district court. Dr. J. P. Frizell and Mrs. R. Ferguson of Bakersfield were married in this city yesterday.
A number of new exhibits arrived at the pavilion yesterday. There was a goodly attendance last evening.
Virgil Connell and James Powell, two prosperous young sheep men of Mono county, are interested spectators at the fair.
The projectoscope exhibition in the Needham building on Virginia street is well worth seeing. Yesterday two new scenes were added.
Sheriff McDeid has offered a reward of $1000 apiece for the bandits who operated in Winnemucca the other day. The bank supplements this with $500, dead or alive.

The Wine House
Burglarized.

The Wine House was burglarized early yesterday morning. Horace Church and Sam Francovich closed the saloon about 1:30 and made everything fast.
Two hours later Special Officer Upson discovered the side door of the saloon open. Mr. Church was aroused and an inspection of the place was made.
The door leading up from the cellar was open and explained the manner of entering the building.
Fifteen dollars had been taken from the cash register and a revolver that lay under the bar. The thief neglected to take $8 that was on a shelf and a gold watch which hung beside the register. A drawer containing money was also untouched.

Announces Himself.

The name of R. O. Leeper will be placed before the Republican convention for nomination to the office of chief constable of Reno.
Mr. Leeper is an experienced officer, having served the city well as deputy constable during the past four years. He is fearless and capable, as many a hard customer now doing time can testify to. Aside from his political affiliations, Charley has an excellent record.

HAPPENINGS
IN NEVADA

News of All the Counties in the State Clipped From Exchanges.

Erysipelas is epidemic in Winnemucca.
Eureka Sentinel says a case of smallpox is reported at Palisade.
It is reported that Robert Gill, who was hurt at Overton, is in a bad way, and that his arm may have to be amputated. At best, there is but little chance of his recovery.
Dick Tennile, a fifteen-year-old boy of Elko, had his left hand blown off by the explosion of a shot-gun. He put in a double charge of powder and as the gun was an old muzzle-loader the barrels were shattered by the explosion.

Several Valuations
Are Cut Down.

It was equalization all down hill yesterday, but just wait till some of the bloated bond-holders get hauled up before the board and their valuations sent skywards.
Some paper out east makes the claim that Elko county put it all over Washoe this year in valuations, and we can't stand that, you know.
The following reductions were made yesterday by the board, the figures not in each case representing the total valuations of each individual's property, but certain portions of it:
Owen Murphy, from $1500 to $1200.
Tessie McDermit, from $500 to $400.
J. J. McKenna, from $700 to $600.
Peter McKenna, from $750 to $600.
John Sparks, from $1800 to $1000.
Mrs. O. Welden, from $750 to $500.
